Subject: Ancient Greek/Latin Language Transfer Assurance Guide (TAG) Training
Workshop for Institutional Ancient Greek/Latin Coordinators/Directors

In December 2017, new Transfer Assurance Guides (TAGs) in Ancient Greek and Latin were announced. To assist institutional submitters in preparation for their TAG submissions, the Ohio Articulation and Transfer Network (OATN) is creating a joint training opportunity for members of the review panels, and coordinators/directors/responsible faculty from public institutions of higher education who will be preparing TAG course submissions. The OATN has received a few TAG course submissions in 2018. Those institutions are also encouraged to send representatives for feedback on their submissions. The OATN invites 1-2 professionals from the appropriate department(s) at your institution to participate in this in-person training session in Columbus. For more information about the Ancient Greek and Latin TAGs, please visit our website: https://www.ohiohighered.org/transfer/foreign_language_initiative_documents. The date of the workshop is Wednesday, May 9, 2018 from 10:00am to 2:30pm.

Please send this invitation to the appropriate professionals on your campus.

Please register by no later than Wednesday, May 2, 2018.
